1. Course Title

Allied Deployment and Movements System (ADAMS) Staff Officer Course (LOGFAS Vs 6.2)

2. Identification Number (ID)

0220

3. Purpose of the Course

To provide military and civilian personnel at NATO, NATO Nation, all partner Nations and Organisation’s Headquarters with training in the use of the Allied Deployment and Movements System (ADAMS) module of the Logistic Functional Area Services (LOGFAS) software, to support the Staff Officer work in regard to the deployment analysis and planning activities of forces and sustainment.

This will include movements planning, co-ordination, analysis and execution.

4. Learning Objectives

On completion of this course the student will be able to:

- Comprehend and able to describe the LOGFAS Data input requirements and procedures; in accordance with NATO stated and/or applied standards.
- Comprehend and able to describe the procedures applied in the creation of an ADAMS Detailed Deployment Plan (DDP).
- Load, view and analyse DDPs using the ADAMS Module.
- Merge multiple national and HQ DDPs to create a multi-nation DDP (MNDDP).
- Comprehend and able to describe the principles of movements deconfliction and the use of the ADAMS Module for analysis of situations requiring deconfliction.
- Use the LOGFAS Common and ADAMS Modules and functions for mapping, analysis and reporting to support the work of the Staff Officer, reporting and presentations.

5. Qualification

Allied Deployment and Movements System (ADAMS) Staff Officer (LOGFAS Vs 6.2)

The qualification is valid for the stated version of the LOGFAS software.

6. Student Criteria

The candidate must:

- Be assigned to a NATO, NATO Nation, Partner Nations and Organisations Headquarters position where the relevant LOGFAS software is or is to be used and applied.
- Meet the stated background knowledge prerequisites.

7. Rank

All ranks and grades that meet the stated Student Criteria.

8. Language Proficiency

In accordance with STANAG 6001: English SLP 3232. The course is conducted in English.
9. Security Clearance
The content and conduct of this course is NATO Unclassified and is Releasable to PFP/MD/ICI/PatG.

10. Course Length
1 Week (5 working days).

11. Special Instructions
None.

12. Class Size
- Maximum: 16 Students
- Recommended: 12 Students
- Minimum: 8 Students

13. Nomination Procedures
In accordance with NCISS instructions. For information go to www.nciss.nato.int

14. Pre-course Study Material
None.

15. Location
The course is normally conducted at NCISS Latina, Italy. However, it can be conducted at other suitable locations.

16. Background Knowledge Prerequisites
The candidate must be able to display and prove theoretical and/or practical skills relating to the deployment of National and Allied Forces.

The candidate must have a basic working knowledge of Microsoft Windows and the common Microsoft Office applications (Word, PowerPoint and Excel).