1. Course Title

Logistic Functional Area Services (LOGFAS) System Administrator and Manager Course (LOGFAS V6.2)

2. Identification Number (ID)

0255

3. Purpose of the Course

To provide military and civilian personnel at NATO, NATO Nation, Partner Nations and Organisations Headquarters with training in the Systems Administration (Sys Admin) of, and Management of the LOGFAS suite of programs.

The course is provided for:

- CIS personnel who will be responsible for the installation, upgrading and maintenance of the software on stand alone or existing networked (Server) systems; with an understanding of the processes that LOGFAS Supports.
- CJ4 or CIS personnel who will be responsible for or provide assistance to use the LOGFAS Connection Manager for database creation, management and maintenance. Including the control, maintenance and upgrading of centrally controlled data sets for Geographic (Locations and Route Networks) information, Transportation Asset Types and Reportable Item Code versions.
- CJ4 or CIS personnel who will be responsible for or provide assistance for the control of access to the various LOGFAS Modules and the Databases using the Utility Management Module.

4. Learning Objectives

On completion of this course the student will be able to:

- Non CIS personnel will demonstrate an understanding of computer networking and Virtual Machine Structures.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the different areas of responsibilities between the CIS and CJ4 areas for the control of LOGFAS and the interrelationship between the areas.
- Demonstrate an understanding and describe the use of the LOGFAS Connection Manager Module (LCM) for the management and control of Databases (Local and Remote).
- Demonstrate an understanding and describe the use of the LCM for the control and management of the centrally controlled data sets used to control LOGFAS Geographic Locations, Transportation Asset Types and Reportable Item Code (RIC) versions.
- Demonstrate an understanding and describe how to connect LOGFAS to other NATO FAS Systems (LOGFAS Web Services, JocWatch, GIS etc).
- Demonstrate an understanding and describe the use of the Utility Management module (UMM) of LOGFAS to control program and data access.
5. Qualification
Logistic Functional Area Services (LOGFAS) Systems Administrator and Manager (LOGFAS Vs 6.2)
The qualification is valid for the stated version of the LOGFAS software.

6. Student Criteria
The candidate must:
- Be assigned to a NATO, NATO Nation, Partner Nations and Organisations Headquarters position where the relevant LOGFAS software is or is to be used and applied.
- Meet the stated background knowledge prerequisites.

7. Rank
All ranks and grades that meet the stated Student Criteria.

8. Language Proficiency
In accordance with STANAG 6001: English SLP 3232.
The course is conducted in English.

9. Security Clearance
The content and conduct of this course is NATO Unclassified and is Releasable to PFP/MD/ICI/PatG.

10. Course Length
1 Week (5 working days).

11. Special Instructions
None.

12. Class Size
- Maximum: 8 Students
- Recommended: 6 Students
- Minimum: 6 Students

13. Nomination Procedures
In accordance with NCISS instructions. For information go to www.nciss.nato.int

14. Pre-course Study Material
None.

15. Location
The course is normally conducted at NCISS Latina, Italy. However, it can be conducted at other suitable locations.

16. Background Knowledge Prerequisites
The candidate must have a basic working knowledge of Microsoft Windows and the common Microsoft Office applications (Word, PowerPoint and Excel).